Announcing RBI's new Manager of Construction

RBI is pleased to announce that Mark Quinn has joined the RBI Home Office team as the Manager of Construction. In this RBI global role, Mark will drive our construction and project teams associated with all of RBI's locations.

Mark comes to RBI after over 25 years at Plan Group in roles such as Account Executive, Project Manager and most recently, Director of Information Transport Systems. Mark holds the credentials of RCDD, and also has an extensive electrical and construction background, starting his career as an electrician and then expanding his horizons throughout his career.

We are pleased to have Mark join the RBI team and are immensely excited to see the contributions that he will make in helping RBI obtain our ongoing organizational growth.
